

ADAMS COUNTY FARM-CITY DAY FESTIVAL

Sheriff participates in this fundraiser and his popularity brings him a very special kind of reward: And Carnation thought they had a contented cow.

Adams County Farm-City Day Festival

On September 15, 2012, the Adams County Farm-City Day Festival held a “Kiss the Cow” fundraiser where individuals could vote for their favorite official to kiss the cow.

Sheriff James Muller received the most votes and kissed “Pearl” the cow. Thank you Sheriff Muller for being such a great sport!

All the proceeds from the fundraiser and an additional contribution from the Farm-City Day Festival went to the East Berlin Fire Company and Ambulance.
